
Phillip Island Offshore Theatre

proudly presents a one-act comedy radio play

A Family Affair

By Christopher Owen

The play is set in Doreen's and Brian's dining room over a Sunday lunch. Doreen and Miriam are sisters who have always been jealous of each other – especially where men are concerned. Brian (Doreen's husband) is caught in the middle, however, he has a few secrets of his own.....

The evening will also featuring Mike & Pip Cleeland performing readings from their book of poems – 'The Sensitive New Age shearer'. Books will be available for sale and autographing throughout the evening.

Starring:

Simon Furniss	as Brian
Mel Beynon	as Doreen (Brian's wife)
Nina Prideaux	as Miriam (Doreen's sister)

Dates	November 13 th , 14 th and 15 th 2014
Time	7.00pm – light meal 7:30pm: Readings by Mike and Pip Cleeland & Ashley Reed 8.00: Show
Venue	Phillip Island Golf Club Settlement Rd, Cowes.
Cost	$30 per person Drinks at bar prices

Bookings available from Monday 13th October 2014 through Phillip Island RSL on 03 5952 1004 or in person. Bookings can be taken for tables of 8 – or any number up to 8. Please let RSL staff know if you wish to be seated with a particular group.